THE HOLE IN THE WALL GANG CAMP

Holiday Tribute Cards

The Back of each card has a description of Camp.

The Inside Right/Bottom of each card reads:

In celebration of the holidays,
A donation has been made in your name to
The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp by

New!

1. Snowy Horse Inside Top reads:

About the artist...

Skyler, age 15, went to The Hole in the Wall Gang Camp for the first time in 2017. "My favorite memory was watching the horse, Misty, and my counselor bob for apples at the horse barn! It was so much fun!" Skyler created this card during a visit with Camp's Hospital Outreach Program, which has a team of more than 30 specialists who bring year-round friendship, laughter and an escape from medical challenges to tens of thousands of seriously ill children in more than 40 locations across the Northeast.

2. Candy Cane Horse Inside Top reads:

About the artist...

Jacob, age 10, has been a Hole in the Wall Camper since 2013. He loves archery, swimming and horseback riding. His favorite horse is Oreo, and he wants to feed all the horses at Camp candy canes. Jacob created this card during a visit with Camp's Hospital Outreach Program, which brings year-round fun, friendship, laughter and a little bit of mischief to tens of thousands of seriously ill children in more than 40 hospitals all across the Northeast.

3. Snowman Inside Left reads:

About the artist...

Holiday artwork painted by Mallory, age 13, during a painting session with one of Camp's Hospital Outreach Specialists. Our Hospital Outreach Program brings the hopeful, playful spirit of Camp to tens of thousands of seriously ill children throughout the Northeast.
