Job Summary

The Journey Program Expedition Leader serves as a liaison between AYA leadership and seasonal staff. Though this position has no direct reports, they act as the group's activity leader when AYA leadership is not physically present in the same space as participants (such as timeliness, leave no trace, program fidelity, coordinating staff coverage, etc.). They are responsible for managing the program schedule and communicating the need for modifications to ensure safe, successful and inclusive programmatic experiences. The Expedition Leaders are the "outdoor experts" and support the learning of outdoor living skills for staff and participants who have less comfort in this area.
